

Camel Cart

Camels are immensely powerful but seldom used for draught purposes in Africa due to the esteem in which they are held by the communities of their owners.

For transport this animal can pull a load of 1000 kg at a speed of 8-10 km/h without stress for several hours before the heat of the day.

This experimental cart has shafts which slide in tubes to accommodate the height of different animals.

Developed by TB Muckle

Camel Harness

